What do you predict would be written in the next diary entry?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I predict that the next diary entry would be another positive one as Anne would still be excited about her new marriage but I think the content would change quite quickly as Anne realises what it is really like to be Henry's queen.

3

Explain why Anne is upset in the first diary entry.

Pupils' own responses, such as: In the first diary entry, Anne is upset because she thinks she may have offended the King without intending to. He came to surprise her in her bedroom and because she did not recognise him she was cold and rude to him. She is worried she has offended him.

Using evidence from the text, explain how you think Anne is feeling in each diary entry.

Pupils' own responses, such as: In the first diary entry, Anne seems nervous and concerned that she has offended her 'betrothed'. She is not sure how Henry is going to behave towards her now as she says 'I fear the damage has been done'. In the second diary entry, Anne is elated 'with great joy and merriment' having just married Henry and gushes about his 'regal magnificence'.
