

5-for-5 Reading

Test One

1 Where did the small girl sit?

Accept any answers which make reference to the girl sitting on a bank.

2 Write down two things that you are told about the creature.

Accept any two of the following:

- it is large;
- it has sharp claws;
- it loves smelly, rotting food;
- it is in the water;
- it is a crustacean.

3 The ripples on the water indicated that something was about to happen before she felt the unmistakable pull.

What does the word unmistakable mean in this sentence?

Tick one.

- | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------|
| confusing | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| unremarkable | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| distinctive | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| unimpressive | <input type="checkbox"/> |

4

Look at the final paragraph. Why did the creature not notice that it had been caught?

Accept any answer that makes reference to the creature being distracted by the bait, such as:

- it is eating the bait;
- it is enjoying the feast;
- it is distracted by the food.

5

Do you think that the girl and her father will catch more creatures? Tick one.

Accept either a 'yes' or a 'no' response provided that the choice is justified with at least one piece of evidence from the text, such as:

- Yes because they caught this one really quickly which shows that they are good at catching them so they will probably catch more.
- No because they have been sitting on a muddy bank and might want to go home and get changed now that they have seen one of the creatures.
