Evacuces head to Ely

Children form across the country were evacuated to Ely during WW2, some were from the East End Of London others were from closer form places like Great Yarmouth that sustained heavy bombing. Jewish Girls form the Central Foundation Girl's School came to Ely in 1939 including some who had escaped on the Kindertransport scheme.