

5-for-5 Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar Answers

Test Four

- 1 Insert two commas and a semi-colon in the correct places in the passage below.

Last week, I baked a cake; it was for my sister's birthday. When it came out of the oven, the smell was delicious!

- ▶ Content Domain: G5.6b: Commas after Fronted Adverbials
G5.11: Semi-Colons

- 2 Circle the three nouns in the sentence below.

This circle fills the circle with a lovely circle.

- ▶ Content Domain: G1.1: Nouns

- 3 Which sentence is written in the subjunctive?

If I were to compete in an event, it would be cycling.

- ▶ Content Domain: G7.4: The Subjunctive

- 4 Write a command which could be the first step in the instructions for tying a pair of shoelaces.

Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

Accept any accurately punctuated answer that uses an imperative.

Pick up your shoes.

Hold a shoelace in each hand.

- ▶ Content Domain: G2.3: Commands

5

You are helping a friend to correct the punctuation in the box below.
Which two pieces of advice should you give to correct the punctuation?

Where are we going? asked the children.

Tick two.

The word 'asked' should have a capital letter.

There should be an inverted comma after the question mark.

There should be an inverted comma after the word 'children'.

There should be an inverted comma before the word 'Where'.

The sentence should end in a question mark instead of a full stop.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

► Content Domain: G5.7: Inverted Commas